

Liz Hancock

Liz is a highly experienced advisor with a wealth of knowledge that will ensure you find the perfect place to relax and experience local life whatever your destination and has been working in Travel Associates for over 20 years. As well as extensive experience within the travel industry, Liz also has years of international experience in both advertising and marketing. Liz spent seven years working and travelling in Japan and her knowledge of this region is second to none. She has spent extensive time travelling throughout Europe, Africa, North & South America, The Pacific and the Middle East - getting off the beaten track and visiting exotic places such as Bermuda, Micronesia, Tahiti, Malawi, and Laos. Liz specialises in group travel and is lauded for her eagle eye for even the smallest details that can turn a great trip into a fantastic experience.