

Wayne Ackerfeld

As an avid traveller, Wayne has lived in Israel and has travelled extensively throughout the Middle East, USA, Europe and Asia.

Wayne excels in solving the most difficult or challenging travel problems. He prides himself on his ability to plan the most cost and time effective itineraries for both business and leisure travel, on a complicated or tight schedule. He also specialises in group travel to a wide variety of destinations as well as the gift of finding seats when no one else can!

Wayne opened Ackerfeld & Goldberg Travel Associates in 1999 however he was also the very first consultant that Flight Centre Travel Group employed 40 years ago. During his career with the company, Wayne has opened and managed many successful retail travel stores and has won multiple awards including that of Number 1 Consultant Worldwide five times.
